Defendant.)

This matter is before the court with the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge William M. Catoe, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 of the District of South Carolina.¹ Anthony B. Burnside (“Burnside”), a state prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Magistrate Judge Catoe recommends dismissing Burnside’s complaint without prejudice and without issuance and service of process. Burnside filed objections to the Report and Recommendation. For the reasons below, the court adopts the Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation and dismisses Burnside’s complaint.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Burnside is currently incarcerated at Broad River Correctional Institute in Columbia, SC. On July 11, 2006, Burnside filed a complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging various civil rights violations. Although unclear from the complaint, Burnside appears to allege the defendant, Margaret Young, engaged in “haressment” [sic] and “misconduct” by terminating him from his prison job. On August 3, 2006, Magistrate Judge Catoe issued his Report recommending dismissal of Burnside’s complaint without issuance and service of process. The Magistrate Judge noted that Burnside’s suit is barred by the “three strikes” rule of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) because he has filed more than three frivolous suits since 1999 and his complaint fails to satisfy the exception for “imminent danger of serious physical injury.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) (West Supp. 2006).

II. DISCUSSION OF THE LAW

Objections to the Report and Recommendation must be specific. Failure to file specific objections constitutes a waiver of a party’s right to further judicial review, including appellate review, if the recommendation is accepted by the district judge. See United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91, 94 & n.4 (4th Cir. 1984). In the absence of specific objections to the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

Burnside filed objections to the Report and Recommendation. After review, however, the court finds that Burnside’s objections are non-specific, unrelated to the dispositive portions of the Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation, and merely restate his claims. Therefore, after a thorough review of the Report and the record in this case, the court adopts the Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that Burnside's complaint is dismissed without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
